Visionary, Advocate, and Co-founder of Loving You Into Freedom

Crystal J. Ferguson is a distinguished educator, serial entrepreneur, and youth development coach with a strong background in behavioral science and public administration. With extensive experience in guiding and mentoring first-generation college students, Crystal is dedicated to empowering young individuals to overcome barriers and achieve academic and professional success.

Crystal's career is marked by her commitment to community advocacy, transformative leadership, and her role as an award-winning educator. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Cultural and Deviant Studies and a Master's in Public Administration. As a former high school guidance counselor, Crystal has a deep understanding of the challenges faced by first-gen students and uses her expertise to provide actionable strategies that help students navigate the complexities of college life.

As the CEO of Elegant Chauffeurs and Founder of Loving You Into Freedom, Crystal integrates her diverse professional experiences into her coaching, offering students unique insights into professional etiquette, workforce development, and personal growth. Her approach combines practical skills with personal empowerment, making her an exceptional guide for first-gen college students aspiring to thrive in their academic and professional journeys.

Loving You Into Freedom is dedicated to providing hope and renewal for families affected by incarceration.

Our mission encompasses comprehensive support, education, and resources aimed at reunification and strengthening relationships. We believe in creating a community where second chances and healing are not just possible, but a reality.

At the heart of Loving You Into Freedom lies a commitment to emotional intelligence, education, and digital-era organizing tactics. By bridging traditional advocacy with modern technology, Crystal and her team empower individuals and families to navigate the complexities of incarceration with dignity and hope.

Approach to Empowerment

From organizing peaceful protests in the wake of George Floyd's passing to delivering compelling speeches on recidivism and mental health, Crystal's voice has become a powerful catalyst for change. Her dynamic presence, both in person and online, continues to inspire and mobilize communities towards greater understanding and action.

Through strategic partnerships with organizations like the Greater Harlem Chamber and John Jay College of Criminal Justice and the Fortune Society, Crystal has amplified our reach, offering crucial support to those in need. Her efforts, combined with a rich tapestry of workshops and advocacy, have touched the lives of many, fostering a culture of resilience and empowerment.

Crystal Ferguson embodies the intersection of personal experience and professional excellence. Her authentic advocacy, rooted in lived experience and academic achievement, resonates deeply with audiences.

Choosing Crystal as a speaker means engaging with a passionate leader dedicated to driving systemic change and empowering lives.
